Parent's Code of Ethics

Parents should...

- Display good sportsmanship by respecting all participants, coaches, officials, & parents.
- If you have a questions or comment, please follow this order:
 1. Ask coach
 2. Ask umpire
 3. Ask the Summer Rec Director
- Place emotional & physical well being of participants above the desire to win.
- Keep in mind that kids activities are meant to be FUN for kids!

Participant's Code of Ethics

Participants should...

- Display good sportsmanship by respecting all participants, coaches, officials, & parents.
- Follow rules & coach's directions.
- Tell the coach if you are hurt, not feeling well, or need help in any way.
- Remember to bring a water bottle filled with water on hot days.

Registration Information

Fill out the enclosed form completely (one sheet must be filled out for each participant) and return it to the City Office by Friday, May 25th with payment in full.

Note: A $5 late fee will be assessed to applications submitted after May 25th.

Refunds

Refunds will be given if it becomes necessary for a participant to withdraw from a class. The Summer Recreation program must be notified of the cancellation at least 3 days before the start of class for a refund to be issued.

Cancellation of Activities

The Ortonville Parks and Recreation Board reserves the right to cancel or combine any classes or activities due to insufficient enrollment. Participants will be notified of any cancellations and a refund check will be issued.

Weather Information

Announcements will be made over KDIO (1350 AM) radio in case of bad weather and/or on our Facebook page.

Telephone Numbers

City Office: 320-839-3428

Insurance

The City of Ortonville does not carry insurance for participants. We suggest reviewing your family's personal health insurance plan to be sure it provides you with sufficient coverage. We also suggest consulting a physician before starting any activity requiring physical exertion.

Please do not forget to include an email address on your registration form that you check regularly & register only one child per registration form. Also, remember that for ALL activities, participants are responsible for their own transportation to & from the activity. Thank you!
